Customer Reviews

I don't usually buy cookbooks anymore because I just browse online recipe blogs and sites, or go to Pinterest. Well, I think this is one cookbook I will really appreciate having every holiday season.[...]First of all, the pictures of the dishes are clear, beautiful, and make your mouth water. When my husband and I first looked through it, we constantly found ourselves saying, "We need to make this!" I am also so impressed by the design, fonts, colors, and layout of the cookbook. It is so aesthetically pleasing, and easy to follow. Festive Feasts is a cookbook with recipe ideas specifically for Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas. Those are the times I am the most deliberate and creative with my cooking and baking. Honestly, I have been looking for more ideas too, and this book has everything I need. Jeni Potter Scott even puts cute, and funny stories before her recipes, making them personal and special. The Halloween recipes are so fun. I especially love the witch finger cookies and breadsticks. They look real! The author has provided every recipe you need to make a fabulous Thanksgiving dinner. She even has a section on what to do with turkey leftovers “ and those recipes look just as mouthwatering as the original turkey. For Christmas, there is an abundance of meat ideas, which I admit, I always need ideas for. There is also an abundance of decadent desserts, such as Red Velvet Peppermint Cake. I know, I want some now too. One thing I just love about this cookbook is that the recipes are not overly difficult. Almost all of them, I feel I could do well, and even adapt to my family’s preferences. Another thing I love is the variety!
