Customer Reviews

Very basic. No details about how to make special Popsicles like what's on the cover. Multiple typos, the most glaring of which is every time they intend the word "dairy", they write "diary". No photos, except on the cover, which is uninspiring. Some recipes call for Splenda, instead of just suggesting how to substitute something for sugar. And most annoying of all, in the TOC, the recipes are listed with 2 names: a title for the Popsicle, and then a description of the Popsicle. The TOC makes it seem like there are going to be twice as many recipes as there are. It's only $10, and there ARE some interesting sounding flavor combinations, but there are better popsicle books than this

Nice ideas for quick summer treats or leftover fruit.
